A photograph of a white rectangular sign with rounded corners hanging from a tree trunk. The sign has the word "et" in a smaller, red, hand-painted font on the top line, and the word "Bravo" in a larger, red, hand-painted font on the bottom line. A thin horizontal line is drawn between the two words. The sign is suspended by a string of red and white triangular bunting flags that runs across the top of the frame. The background consists of a dense forest of green trees and foliage.
